LAS VEGAS' BEST BEER & BITES

THREE STRIP RESTAURANTS SURE TO SATISFY BEER BUFFS

By Heather Turk

Several Las Vegas Strip restaurants boast extensive beer selections that complement their mouthwatering fare quite nicely. Next time you're thirsting for a refreshing brew, head to one of these restaurants where the beer is just as memorable as the bites being served.

DOUBLE BARREL ROADHOUSE AT MONTE CARLO

One of Las Vegas' newest eateries, Double Barrel Roadhouse offers guests an authentic roadhouse experience overlooking Las Vegas Boulevard. Guest can feast upon a menu of bold, Southern flavors while enjoying an array of beers, including eight on tap. There's even a cocktail made with beer, the tasty Peach Shandy: a mixture of CÍROC Peach, orange wheels, freshly squeezed lemon juice, Sierra Mist and Shock Top Belgian White. Whatever you decide on, be sure to try the filling Your Mama's Chicken Pot Pie loaded with chunks of tender chicken and don't forget a slice of the yummy chocolate Birthday Cake for dessert—it even comes with a candle to blow out!

PUBLIC HOUSE AT THE VENETIAN

Boasting more than 200 types of beer, including 24 on tap and one cask, this gastropub is every beer lover's dream. While its beer selection may be impressive, its food is equally remarkable. Must-tries include the Heirloom Tomatoes panzanella style with goat cheese mousse and pesto and the tender Deschutes Black Butte Porter-braised Short Rib. There's even Hoegaarden ice cream made with real beer for dessert! What more could beer enthusiasts ask for?

TAP AT MGM GRAND

With 60 HD flat-screen televisions and a collection of sports memorabilia lining the walls—including a jersey signed by NBA great Magic Johnson—this new sports bar is the perfect place to watch a game. Featuring 60 beers (24 on tap), guests can enjoy an ice-cold brew while digging in to a menu of bar food favorites like the flavorful Buffalo Chicken sliders or the build-your-own Game Day Burgers. For dessert, be sure to order the Apple Cobbler—it's a real home run! 🍷
